

Portraits of Valour – The Men who came to The Guildhall

Monday 2nd November to Monday 23rd November

Open daily 11.00
to 4.00pm
Exhibition
Entrance Free

Featuring The Medallists on Belgrave Working Men's Club WW1 Roll of Honour, photographed at The Guildhall by Leicester Chronicle 22nd November 1919

Talks £6.00 via <https://www.leicestermuseums.org/event-details/?id=99dbb5ec-eb42-4c44-a838-257009a06fdb>

Monday 2nd November 2.00 pm

At the Going Down of the Sun – The Work of the At Risk War Memorials Project .

Denis Kenyon, Founder Director, Leicester City, County & Rutland At Risk War Memorials Project

How mindless vandalism and neglect was the catalyst to our starting the Project to take into care war memorials from closed churches, chapels, working men's clubs and factories – buildings destined for change of use or even demolition.

~~~~~
Sunday 15th November 2.00 pm

War memorials in other lands and the meaning behind them.

Denis Kenyon

Comparing war memorialisation in Great Britain with that of France; Germany; Poland; Russia and America.

~~~~~
Monday 16th November 2.00 pm

Leicester's Victorian War Memorials

Robin Jenkins

Leicester has some significant Victorian war memorials – but the story of their creation is a curious one indeed. Leicester's commemoration of Queen Victoria's wars has some significant gaps and was by no means as straightforward a story as you might think. We shall explore the grand schemes and tortuous routes, the personalities and peculiarities which led to Leicester's Victorian War Memorials.

~~~~~
Monday 23rd November 2.00 pm

Consecrated to Peace

Denis Kenyon

A look at a wide range of very different memorials consecrating peace rather commemorating war.